Demo Itinerary: A Week in Rome

Trip duration: 6 days | Trip ref. #: TC-GDC3SXPM | Travelers: 2 adults

Total price
CA$3,864.75

This is a city steeped in history, boasting beautiful buildings and awe-inspiring ruins. There are plenty of things to do in Rome that will give you a solid sense of its past, from touring ancient government headquarters to paying your respects at a storied cemetery. For a glimpse at a more modern Rome, steel yourself with a drink at one of the city's best bars and then brave the rowdy crowds at a football match, enjoy some outdoor music or partake in the annual city marathon. No matter how you choose to spend your time here, you'll be treated to stunning views, world-class attractions, friendly locals and the ultimate history lesson.

Description

See Rome in a fun and non-conventional way with a 3-hour guided bike tour through the Italian capital. It's an active way to discover the city, as you explore with an informative audio guide and tour leader. From the sights of ancient Rome to the Vatican City, hop on a comfortable cruiser bike and see the best of the Italian capital. Discover the wonder of the ancient Colosseum, built in 72 AD during the reign of Emperor Vespasian. It still stands today as a reminder of the rich Roman history. Then, experience the grandeur of the Vatican City, heart of the Roman Catholic religion and home to the Pope. Marvel at the beauty of the palaces, gardens, and the stunning St. Peter's Basilica. Cruise by the Fontana di Trevi, the city's largest Baroque fountain, and admire its stunning craftsmanship and elegant design. The Pantheon, formerly a temple honoring all the gods of Ancient Rome, is a remarkable piece of architecture, and you will see this as well. Its Corinthian columns and massive concrete dome have inspired buildings all over the world, including the Pantheon of Paris. Finally, pedal by Circus Maximus, the former site of exciting chariot races, or wonder at the history of the Roman Forum. But don't forget your camera; a trip like this should be documented so that you can relive the memories.

Description

There is only one stop on this very special wine and food tasting experience: our enoteca of choice is mere minutes away from the world famous Colosseum and Basilica of San Clemente. The location is a unique, underground room with a centuries-old brick vaulted ceiling and we think it provides the perfect atmosphere to drink, eat, and compare notes on fabulous wines! The wines you will try have been specially curated for our tour and are among the best available in the province of Rome and Italy with a focus on organic, indigenous grape varieties. The cesanese grape variety is a particular highlight as it really can only be found in the hills surrounding Rome and is thought to be one of the oldest vines still in cultivation. A medley of small bites and delicious local cheeses will perfectly complement the wines that will be served to you. Learn more about local wine and food culture. Once our experience ends if you are looking for other recommendations, your local guide will be very happy to help.

Description

The first attractions of this walking tour includes the Vatican Museums, Sistine Chapel and St. Peter's Basilica, skipping the queue for all three. An expert guide will accompany you as you discover the endless wonders of the museums - from courtyards, galleries of marble sculptures, tapestries, chandeliers and ancient maps, to the most admired room of them all - the Sistine Chapel. Have time to absorb the beauty of Michelangelo Buonarroti's masterpieces the Last Judgement and the famous Creation of Adam. Your Vatican tour continues onto St. Peter's Basilica via a private route that allows you to reach the church without leaving the museum and skipping the queue. Once inside, your guide will enlighten you on the basilica's extraordinary artistic heritage including Michelangelo's Pietà, works of the famous sculptor Antonio Canova, Bernini's Baldacchino and many many others. Your journey through the Vatican's past will end in St. Peter's Basilica. After the tour, there will be time for you to make your way to the meeting point for the second tour, which will begin at the exit of the Colosseum's metro station. As you walk through the Roman Forum at sunset, another journey into the ancient Roman Empire will begin as your guide reveals the history of its political intrigues, battles and betrayals. Your next few steps will lead you to Piazza Venezia and after, the notorious Trevi Fountain - the largest in Rome and one of the most famous fountains in the world. Newly restored, you will be amazed by the brightness of the white stone and its astonishing beauty. Making your way through the characteristic Roman streets (which are even more enchanting at night,) reach Piazza della Rotonda - home to the Pantheon. Its famous perforated dome still remains the largest and most significant one ever built. From there, walk towards Piazza Navona, stopping to admire Bernini's stupendous fountain which will be your last attraction of the day. Go your separate way in one of the most cherished squares in the city, beautifully lit on a magical Roman evening. These two tours will shine light onto two different worlds unknown to you previously, allowing you to catch a glimpse of Rome's extraordinary ancient past and its fascinating daily life, leaving you enchanted for a lifetime.

Description

Eat your way through the "Eternal City" on a 4-hour walking tour of Rome, starting in the vibrant square of the Campo de' Fiori. Soak up the dynamic atmosphere of the bustling cafés and street musicians at the start of the Italian tradition of "aperitif." Meet your guide at the perfect spot for a tour focused on food and wine, and sample a selection of artisanal salamis from Italy, paired with your first taste of the country's fine wines. Stroll through the city center as your guide divulges its strange and wonderful history. Then, nourish yourself with some local cheese at an historic shop that sells cheeses of various Italian origins. Sample another glass of carefully selected wine and try the authentic Roman specialty of baccalà fritto (fried salted cod). Continue with a tasting of 2 other typically Roman foods: pizza "by the slice" and supplì (rice balls). Visit eateries that specialize in the production of these scrumptious treats to experience new taste sensations and unforgettable aromas. Digest all your delicious food samples on a stroll to supper in one of the coziest restaurants in the Trastevere district. Known for the quality of its food, this quarter is considered to have the best restaurants in Rome. Enjoy an exquisite Roman antipasto and 2 first courses, accompanied by 2 different Italian wines of protected production and origin. Finally, try some locally made Italian ice cream in flavors typical of a famous gelateria to complete your immersive journey into Italian cuisine.
